

Luxembourg-Poland Business Club
89-93, Grand-Rue
L-1661 Luxembourg

PRESS RELEASE

BERNARD MASSARD, KPMG Luxembourg and STIDIA – new corporate members of LPBC

The Luxembourg-Poland Business Club (LPBC) is proud to announce that the companies BERNARD MASSARD, KPMG Luxembourg and STIDIA have become new corporate members of our business club.

BERNARD MASSARD is Luxembourg's first privately owned wine producer with about 4 million bottles produced per year. Besides a strong presence in Benelux, the company is also represented in countries like Finland or Canada as well as in many other markets.

KPMG is one of the leading providers of audit, tax and advisory services in Luxembourg with more than 1.100 employees.

STIDIA is a partner for professional, enterprise-level IT solutions, offering penetration testing, secure managed hosting, network engineering and systems programming.

We would like to remind you about the Official Mission to Poland from the 7th to the 9th May 2014.

If your company is interested in joining this mission, please send your registration form to the "Chamber of Commerce" by the 31st March 2014 (Ms. Anne-Marie Loesch / Ms. Edith Stein, pologne2014@cc.lu).

LPBC will be organizing the following events in the first half of 2014:

1. A semi-annual meeting of the Advisory Board in April
2. Visit of prof. Leszek Balcerowicz in Luxembourg in May
3. Real Estate conference in June
4. Wine testing at The House of Bernard Massard in July.

Please save these dates in your calendars!

For further information, please contact: LPBC - info@lpbc.lu